A LITTLE GOLD OWL.

"Do you know what a famous Russian beauty once wrote in her ulbum? No? Let me tell you, then: 'The talking love, the Italian of acting it, but the German rocks it to sleep, while the Pole ruins all."

"And the American?" pleaded a ninsical voice in the ear of the first speaker. The lady made no immediate reply. The pair stood in the wings of a tiny amateur theater in one of our largecities, and the drama of "Matrimony," n which they had acted, was over. Both were artists in that intense sentiment of excitement which stirs the ripples of private life when theatricals and charades become the fashion.
